

Announcement Description

Emerging Markets Consulting seeks applications from senior level candidate for position of Senior Finance and Investment Advisor on the USAID-funded Agriculture Partnership Hub (APH). APH is a five-year project beginning mid 2022 based in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, and implemented by Abt Associates.

The purpose of APH is to promote diversification within Cambodia's agricultural sector through targeted private sector partnerships that have the potential to link with new markets, create jobs for Cambodians and improve livelihoods.

Senior Finance and Investment Advisor

The role of Senior Finance and Investment Advisor is to originate, develop and conclude innovative partnerships with leading Cambodian and foreign businesses, investors, and financial institutions, in order to build a competitive and climate-smart agriculture system.

This is a part time role, comprising 5 days a month during the first 12 months, with the potential for follow on work.

Duties include

- Develop opportunities for investments that contribute to a more robust agriculture market system.
- Develop opportunities for innovative financing mechanisms to address gaps in provision of finance.
- Identify financial institutions the potential expand agricultural lending, especially agricultural processing export. Develop partnerships these institutions develop expand programs these purposes.
- Support investment promotion and engagement activities including materials, workshops and networking.
- Support the program's grant management team.
- Contribute the of initiatives improve borrowers' financial management demonstrate creditworthiness.
- Collaborate the project's M&E staff collect analyze for monitoring, learning, reporting.
- Support the Chief of Party (COP) defining project's overall technical approach, drafting annual plans, implementing integrated set activities achieve goals.

Requirements

- Advanced degree in finance, business, economics, business law, agribusiness, or related fields.
- 15 years' relevant international professional experience, including business consulting, investment, and private sector development.
- 10 years' relevant experience in Cambodia, including a track record in;
 - Investment and business consulting in the private sector.
 - Engaging leading businesses from the agribusiness sector, finance and investment sectors in private sector oriented development.
 - Development of innovative financing solutions for social benefit.

- Experience with donor funded private sector development and grants programs. Specific experience with USAID is highly desirable.
- Proven ability coordinating with and fostering good working relationships between technical and operational teams.
- Proven ability in entrepreneurship, leadership, strategic thinking and planning, management, and presentation skills.

Application Information

To apply for any of the above position, please send CV including salary expectations to the following email: recruiting@emc-consulting.asia until 15th April 2022.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis and shortlisted candidates will be contacted for further discussion. In the meantime, to learn more about the previous USAID-funded Harvest II program, and EMC, please follow these links: Harvest II:

<https://www.facebook.com/CambodiaHarvestII/>

EMC:

EMC Consulting News - EMC Consulting \(emc-consulting.asia\)

\(1\) Emerging Markets Consulting \(EMC\): My Company | LinkedIn